Stick around.

One of the best things about growing up in this area is that you never have to leave it. Because its economy is growing by leaps and bounds, producing new job opportunities in both business and agriculture. Too, you'll find technical and higher education facilities second to none. So, come graduation time, stick around. You won't find a better place to live, work and play.

Welcome to Clemson

We are most pleased to have you as guests today on the beautiful, spacious, and expanding campus of Clemson University.

Here you will find a dynamic university hard at work on our nation's most vital tasks: the formal education of our young men and women; conducting a very complex multi-million-dollar research program; and directing the many programs of public service activities which are a part of this land-grant university.

To insure its ability to meet its mission and the ever increasing demands placed upon it, Clemson University has, in little more than a decade, added more than $45 million of teaching and research facilities. The academic qualifications of the Clemson student have been significantly up-graded by the adoption of a selective admission policy. And too, the quality of Clemson faculty and teaching has greatly improved even though the number of faculty has doubled in size the past 10 years.

These essential developments, together with a program of constantly up-dating all curricula and the dramatic expansion of the graduate program, have given Clemson University a position of great academic respect throughout the nation.

A bit over 100 years ago this property was the estate of John C. Calhoun, one of the great statesmen of his era. Just over 75 years ago his son-in-law, Thomas Green Clemson, willed the estate to the state of South Carolina for the establishment of "a technical institution." A graduate of Clemson's first class (1896), Dr. B. Rhett Turnipseed, still lives at Statesville, N. C.

Today Fort Hill, the Calhoun and Clemson home, stands preserved in the center of the campus. Less than a mile away, on the site of Mr. Clemson's stable boy's cabin, is the new multi-million-dollar Robert Muldrow Cooper Library, the academic focal point of the university. The new building under construction adjacent to this beautiful stadium is the J. C. Littlejohn Coliseum. Other new facilities, representing a total cost in excess of $10 million, are either under construction or will be before the end of the year.

We urge you this weekend—or anytime—to visit the academic and research activities that surround you here. We are confident you will be amazed by and proud of the scope and excellence of Clemson University.

And may you return often.

HEY... look us over

Academic and physical development have become an exciting way of life for Clemson University, where the campus is being rapidly transformed by a vigorous, $50-million building program. The expansion is aimed toward the mid 1970's when Clemson's student body is expected to reach 10,000.

Construction stretches from the shadows of the towering, new high-rise residence hall on East Campus to the red earth across from Death Valley where the J. C. Littlejohn Coliseum is taking shape.

Other projects either now under construction or scheduled to begin soon are a second high-rise dormitory, an additional dining hall, a new student health center, a classroom and faculty complex for arts and sciences, and a graduate engineering research laboratory.

While visiting our campus today we invite you to become a sidewalk superintendent. Look us over. We think you will be proud of our dynamic growth. We are.

and Head Football Coach

150th Outshines 100th . . .

The 13-12 loss to Georgia Tech last year was the 100th for Coach Frank Howard in his coaching career, but overshadowing this was his 150th triumph.

This came against Maryland, 14-10, in the eighth game of the season. Howard is now one of five active coaches in the nation to achieve this plateau, and according to his standards, "it's a lot harder to win 100 than it is to lose 'em."

But he is all by himself for having the longest tenure of any coach. He is now in his 28th year at one institution, and only one other coach (Warren Woodson at New Mexico State) has more coaching years than Howard.

Last year Howard saw his Tigers win their fourth Atlantic Coast Conference title and he was named ACC coach-of-the-year. In the ACC's 13-year history, Clemson has an 82-56-2 overall record and 53-36-1 with league teams.

The Century Club .. .

Thirteen coaches who are at major football institutions (as classified by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau) have now won 100 or more games in their careers. The "Century Club" saw two members enter last year and four retire. Coach Frank Howard is second-ranked for the most years as a head coach (behind Warren Woodson of New Mexico State). However, Howard has the longest tenure in the nation, now in his 28th year at Clemson. Howard ranks fifth in the nation for the most wins and is one of five who has won over 150 games. Listed below are the current "Century Club" members:

It's Different Here

Are college football games everywhere pretty much the same?—the crowds?—the bands?—the cheers? Sure there's a similarity—but it's different here. Each game has its own distinctive flavor—spirit—tradition. So it is with uniforms we manufacture. Into them go many intangibles of experience and skill. This is why an increasing number of Units are scoring with "Uniforms of Distinction" by

The Georgia Series

A South Carolina-flavored Georgia squad pays its first visit to "Death Valley" today since 1963 when the Tigers and Bulldogs battled to a 7-7 tie.

This across-the-lake rivalry started back in 1897, the second year Clemson fielded a football team, and the two teams played 20 consecutive games before taking a three-year lapse.

During a 37-year period between 1919 and 1955, the two met only 12 times. Then there was no more action until 1962 when a new four-year pact took place. With today's game Georgia and Clemson start another series which, with the exception of one year, runs from now until 1980.

The Bulldogs are Clemson's closest football opponent—located about 80 miles away.

Coach Vince Dooley holds two victories over his senior colleague, Frank Howard, in their only two meetings. However, Howard has not fared too well with Dooley's predecessors either. Howard has sent his Tigers out 10 times and they came away with a win (26-7 in 1955 at Clemson) and a tie (7-7 in 1963 at Clemson) and losses in the other eight games.

Clemson has won 10 of 36 previous games while losing 23 and having three ties with the Bulldogs.

After Georgia won the first three, the Tigers reeled off seven straight wins between 1900 and 1906. In those first 20 games Clemson took nine, Georgia 10 and there was one tie.

But beginning after another tie (0-0) in 1919, the Bulldogs captured 10 straight before the Clemson triumph in 1955.

In their last meeting in 1965, Clemson took the upper hand at the beginning. A 65-yard drive in just five plays gave the Tigers six points. Hugh Mauldin went the final 20 yards in two runs, but the big play was a 43-yard aerial from Thomas Ray to Edgar McGee.

Preston Ridlehuber connected with Pat Hodgson for a 34-yard scoring play to give Georgia a tie, but Frank Pearce kicked a 35-yard field goal early in the second period to give Clemson a 9-6 halftime lead.

A Don Barfield punt was blocked by Jimmy Cooley and picked up by Larry Kohn on a play covering 38 yards and the Bulldogs were off and running. Another third period TD and a fourth quarter field goal gave the Bulldogs a 23-9 win.

With South Carolinians playing for Georgia and several Peach Staters playing for the Tigers, it should be a heck of a battle today.

My Daddy Is Not a Football Coach

by DEANNE DOOLEY

as told to Loran Smith, Assistant Sports Information Director, University of Georgia

EVERYBODY calls my Daddy Coach Dooley, but I just call him Daddy.

He's a nice man. He rests. He goes to work. He takes me to the dime store. He plays tennis. He goes on trips.

Some things he does I don't know about. He does everything.

Mama says I shouldn't marry a football coach, 'cause all they do is play football and never come home. My Daddy really doesn't work. He just goes on trips.

When my Daddy goes off for a long trip, he always brings me a surprise. When he brings me a surprise I hug him. Sometimes he doesn't bring a surprise because they are all out of surprises. He says I get too many, anyway.

When my Daddy goes on trips he flieds on airplanes. He let me flied on a airplane one time.

My Daddy gives me a dime every week to make up my bed. I just can't forget. Sometimes I do forget and he doesn't pay me if I forget.

He gives me an extra dime if I'm good and help Mama do things in the house. I wouldn't like to be a Mama. I'd rather be a Daddy and flied on airplanes.

My Daddy takes me to the dime store. I love to do that. He lets me buy one toy. I love to buy toys but Daddy says I shouldn't have too many. I like to buy big toys, but Daddy makes me buy little ones. Little toys don't cost as much as big toys.

My Daddy likes for me to be a good girl. He can't stand for me to whine. He never spansks me except sometimes he does when I'm bad. I'm never bad. I just like jokes.

I like Batman because I like the Joker. He plays tricks. I like to play tricks. Mama puts her foot down sometimes when I play too many tricks. She says she will tell Daddy.

Daddy likes to play tricks, too. He throws water on Mama and makes her try to catch him. Daddy always wins. I like for Daddy to win.

My Daddy takes me to the bank. When I am a good girl and get some moneys for making up my bed we go put it in the bank. When I get lots of moneys I'm going to the dime store by myself and buy me some big toys.

My Daddy gets up earlier than my Mama. I get up with my Daddy so he can cook me some cereal. That is all he ever cooks. Just old cereal. I wish he could learn to cook something else. I'm tired of cereal.

My Daddy likes for me to brush my teeth. We brush our teeth together sometimes. He brushes his teeth all the time.

Daddy takes me to church on Sunday. Sometimes he takes me to Sunday School. Sometimes he takes me to church. But, he always takes me on Sunday.

I rather go to the dime store.

Daddy tells me ghost stories at night. Then I go to sleep. He tells me other stories. Do you know why the little Moron tippety toe by the medicine cabinet? So he wouldn't wake up the sleeping pills. My Daddy told me that.

My Daddy does everything for me. He plays with my brother Danny and my sister Denise. Sometimes he plays with them too much.

I go to kindergarten. My teacher's name is Miss McDonald. She is a good teacher.

One day she had a picture of my Daddy in the paper. She asked us who was that? Everybody said that's "Coach Dooley."

I told her that wasn't Coach Dooley. "That's my Daddy."

Dramatic!
Distinctive!
Daringly new!

Expect a lot of never-befores and nice-to-haves from Chevrolet for 1968. You can count on nothing being newer. Formal and fastback roof lines. Elegant new interiors with exciting colors, fabrics, and easy-to-reach instruments. Concealed headlights, Hide-A-Way windshield wipers, and refreshing Astro Ventilation, available on many models.

NEW SILENT RIDE.

More effective body and engine mounts, quieter exhaust systems, and further improved shock absorbers. The result? Every new Chevrolet rides incredibly smooth and silent.

NEW MODELS, TOO.

Like the elegant Impala Custom Coupe and rugged new Chevelle Nomad Station Wagons. For the serious sports fan, there's the completely re-styled Corvette Sting Ray, and the Chevelle SS 396 with long-hood short-deck styling and a wider wheel stance to make it cling to the road better. Camaro, "The Hugger," features Astro Ventilation, and special hood on all SS models.
